

International Agency for Chiropractic Evaluation

Task Force on APTO

The mission of the Task Force on APTO:

To bring together a broad array of relevant expertise to identify excellence in systems and organizations to advance non-therapeutic, vertebral subluxation-centered chiropractic at the post-graduate level. The Task Force will compile standards of excellence and deliver them as recommendations to IACE for use in its work to establish means of assessing and certifying quality.